WHAT IS YOUTH LEADERSHIP MAURY?

Class members meet with local decision-makers in several sectors of the community, such as business, government, health, public services and agriculture. Participants will visit places all over the county to hear speakers and participate in activities to help them learn about Maury County and how to positively impact where they live, learn, work and play.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

Any high school junior in Maury County (public, private, or homeschol) may apply for the program. A limited number of class members are accepted. Class members are accepted solely based on their application. Attendance at each session is Mandatory! Your commitment is critical to success.
